

A DEEP DIVE ON OUR HOPE IN CHRIST

Sunday, February 1, 2026 -- 1 Peter Series -- Msg 27 -- Pastor Andrew Coleman

1 PETER 3:18-22

English Standard Version (ESV)

18 For Christ also suffered once for sins, the righteous for the unrighteous, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh but made alive in the spirit, 19 in which he went and proclaimed to the spirits in prison, 20 because they formerly did not obey, when God's patience waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was being prepared, in which a few, that is, eight persons, were brought safely through water. 21 Baptism, which corresponds to this, now saves you, not as a removal of dirt from the body but as an appeal to God for a good conscience, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, 22 who has gone into heaven and is at the right hand of God, with angels, authorities, and powers having been subjected to him.

OVERVIEW & CONTEXT:

- This is one of the _____ Christological passages in the New Testament.
- Peter is deep diving on Christ's life and work to _____ his suffering readers.
- Peter stacks atonement, resurrection, proclamation, judgment, salvation history, baptism, and exaltation into five verses. Super thick! Super _____ !
- MAIN THEME—
Because Christ triumphed through suffering and now reigns in glory, believers can endure suffering with _____, knowing that salvation, judgment, and vindication belong to Him.

Last week we saw in 3:13-17 Peter said...

Do not fear them... but honor Christ the Lord as holy!

Today we see in 3:18-22...

Here is the theological _____ for why you don't have to fear them!

HOW IT ALL FITS TOGETHER (The Flow of the Argument)

Here is Peter's logic in plain terms:

1. You are _____ unjustly (3:13–17 -- last week)
2. So did _____—but His suffering was purposeful and victorious (v. 18)
3. His death led to _____, not defeat (v. 18b)
4. His resurrection declared victory over all spiritual rebellion (vv. 19–20)
5. God has always saved His people through _____, not exemption from it
6. Your _____ marks your saving union with this victorious Christ (v. 21)
7. That Christ now reigns over _____ (v. 22)

I. CHRIST'S SUFFERING WAS _____ AND _____ v. 18a

"For Christ also suffered once for sins, the righteous for the unrighteous, that he might bring us to God..."

- Once for sins → final, sufficient atonement.

HEBREWS 9:26

for then he would have had to suffer repeatedly since the foundation of the world. But as it is, he has appeared once for all at the end of the ages to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.

HEBREWS 10:10

And by that will we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

- The righteous for the unrighteous → substitution, not mere example
- That He might bring us to God → _____ is the goal, not merely forgiveness

Peter's point:

As Christ's suffering had great purpose: it secured your access to God,
So your suffering has great and promised _____ too. (See James 1:2-4)

II. CHRIST'S DEATH WAS NOT DEFEAT BUT _____ TO RESURRECTION LIFE

v. 18b "...being put to death in the flesh but made alive in the spirit."

Clarification: Not "flesh vs. spirit" as sinful vs. holy Rather sphere of death vs. sphere of resurrection power

He truly _____ physically, and He truly _____ physically by resurrection power

ROMANS 1:3-4 Speaking of Christ Jesus...

*3 concerning his Son, who was descended from David according to the flesh
4 and was declared to be the Son of God in power according to the Spirit of holiness by his resurrection from the dead, Jesus Christ our Lord,*

Peter's point:

What looks like loss is actually the _____ to _____.

III. CHRIST'S VICTORY WAS PROCLAIMED TO THE _____.

v. 19–20 "...in which he went and proclaimed to the spirits in prison..."

'proclaimed' in verse 19

NOT... εὐαγγελίζω = euaggelizó = to announce good news (the Gospel)

BUT... κηρύσσω = kérussó = to _____ judgment is used in vs 19

'spirits' are _____ supernatural beings, from Genesis 6,
now imprisoned and awaiting judgment

Peter's point:

No hostile power—human or spiritual—escaped Christ's triumph.

This goes with verse 22-- we see Christ's _____ over all!

IV. GOD'S SAVING

IN THE PAST EXPLAINS SALVATION IN THE PRESENT.

vs 20 "because they formerly did not obey, when God's patience waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was being prepared, in which a few, that is, eight persons, were brought safely through water. 21 Baptism, which corresponds to this, now saves you, not as a removal of dirt from the body but as an appeal to God for a good conscience, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ,

Peter draws a _____ connection: (a type points to an anti-type)
God pronounced judgment but waited _____ years for Noah to build the ark.
Noah → Baptism
God used _____ to judge the world (represents death/judgment)
God used the _____ to save the sinners (represents Christ)
Salvation came _____ judgment, not around it.

Important Clarification:

- Peter explicitly rejects baptismal _____ (being saved by water baptism)
- The saving power is not the water or baptism in water.
- The saving power is being spiritually _____ in Jesus Christ by faith (his death & resurrection) see Ephesians 1

Peter's point:

Just as Noah was saved through judgment by trusting God's _____ (the ark), so believers are saved by immersive _____ in Christ (His death & resurrection).

V. CHRIST'S EXALTATION GUARANTEES _____

vs 22

22 who has gone into heaven and is at the right hand of God, with angels, authorities, and powers having been subjected to him.

Christ's victory is the climactic resolution of the whole paragraph.

Resurrection → Ascension
Ascension → Enthronement
Enthronement → Universal _____

Peter's point:

The One you follow is not merely a _____—He is the _____.

PSALM 24:7-10

- 7 *Lift up your heads, O gates!
And be lifted up, O ancient doors,
that the King of glory may come in.*
- 8 *Who is this King of glory?
The Lord, strong and mighty,
the Lord, mighty in battle!*
- 9 *Lift up your heads, O gates!
And lift them up, O ancient doors,
that the King of glory may come in.*
- 10 *Who is this King of glory?
The Lord of hosts,
he is the King of glory! Selah*
