

JUDE: Humble, Called and Kept

July 19, 2015 — Epistle of Jude series — Msg 2 — Pastor Andrew Coleman

Jude 1-2

English Standard Version (ESV)

- 1 Jude, a servant of Jesus Christ and brother of James,
To those who are called, beloved in God the Father
and kept for Jesus Christ:
2 May mercy, peace, and love be multiplied to you.

Review: The Background of Jude

- 1) The war on truth has raged since before time began.
- 2) Jude is one of the last books of the Bible written.
- 3) Jude's theme — BEWARE of APOSTATES.
- 4) Difference between the Apostles and the Apostates:
Apostles: 'one who is sent'
Apostates: 'one who dissents' abandons, defects etc
- 5) Jesus, Paul, Peter, John, warn 'false teachers are coming'.
- 6) Jude says, 'the false teachers are here'. vs 4

The NAME Jude —

Hebrew form: Judah

Greek form: Judas or Jude

The MAN Jude —

There are numerous men named 'Jude' or 'Judas' in the NT.

There are also numerous men named 'James' in the NT.

This Jude and this James are half-brothers of Jesus.

Mark 6:3; Matthew 12:46-50; 13:55; John 7:5

- The progeny of Jesus is the Holy Spirit and Mary.
- The progeny of Jesus' brothers and sisters is Joseph and Mary.

Jude and James were not among the 12 disciples.

Judas Iscariot 'went apostate'. But this Judas was faithful.

- 1 Jude, a servant of Jesus Christ and brother of James,
To those who are called, beloved in God the Father
and kept for Jesus Christ:
2 May mercy, peace, and love be multiplied to you.

1) Notice the humility Jude displays.

a servant of Jesus Christ and brother of James

doulos = bondslave, servant

He is owned. 1 Corinthians 6:19-20

He is obedient. Romans 6:16-18

He is obligated. Romans 8:12-13

2) Notice the credentials Jude discloses.

a servant of Jesus Christ brother of James

James was the leader of church at Jerusalem.

Acts 12:17; 15:13; 21:18; Gal. 2:9

A statement of identification and validation.

Falsehood was everywhere. In person and in letters.

The source of knowledge and instruction is critically important. DANGER!

3) Notice the recipients Jude designates: true Christians.

*To those who are called, beloved in God the Father
and kept for Jesus Christ:*

A) They are called to salvation by God.

Rom. 1:7; I Cor. 1:23-24; 1 Thess 5:24; 2 Thess. 2:13-14

B) They are specially loved by God.

John 13:1; 14:23; 16:27; 17:20, 23; Rom. 5:8; 1 John 3:1

C) They are kept secure by God.

John 6:37-44; 10:28-30; 17:11, 15; Rom 8:31-39; 2 Tim. 4:18;

The truth of God is for the children of God.

4) Notice the blessings Jude declares:

Mercy — not judgment, condemnation and wrath.

Peace — not anxiety, fear and strife.

Love — not rejection, loneliness, separation.

The Letter of JUDE – ‘Watch out for IMPOSTORS!’

(written by Jude, half-brother of Jesus, in the mid-60's AD)

1 Jude, a servant of Jesus Christ and brother of James, To those who are called, beloved in God the Father and kept for Jesus Christ: May mercy, peace, and love be multiplied to you.

3 Beloved, although I was very eager to write to you about our common salvation, I found it necessary to write appealing to you to contend for the faith that was once for all delivered to the saints. 4 For certain people have crept in unnoticed who long ago were designated for this condemnation, ungodly people, who pervert the grace of our God into sensuality and deny our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ.

5 Now I want to remind you, although you once fully knew it, that Jesus, who saved a people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed those who did not believe. 6 And the angels who did not stay within their own position of authority, but left their proper dwelling, he has kept in eternal chains under gloomy darkness until the judgment of the great day—7 just as Sodom and Gomorrah and the surrounding cities, which likewise indulged in sexual immorality and pursued unnatural desire, serve as an example by undergoing a punishment of eternal fire.

8 Yet in like manner these people also, relying on their dreams, defile the flesh, reject authority, and blaspheme the glorious ones. 9 But when the archangel Michael, contending with the devil, was disputing about the body of Moses, he did not presume to pronounce a blasphemous judgment, but said, “The Lord rebuke you.” 10 But these people blaspheme all that they do not understand, and they are destroyed by all that they, like unreasoning animals, understand instinctively. 11 Woe to them! For they walked in the way of Cain and abandoned themselves for the sake of gain to Balaam’s error and perished in Korah’s rebellion. 12 These are hidden reefs[el] at your love feasts, as they feast with you without fear, shepherds feeding themselves; waterless clouds, swept along by winds; fruitless trees in late autumn, twice dead, uprooted; 13 wild waves of the sea, casting up the foam of their own shame; wandering stars, for whom the gloom of utter darkness has been reserved forever.

14 It was also about these that Enoch, the seventh from Adam, prophesied, saying, “Behold, the Lord comes with ten thousands of his holy ones, 15 to execute judgment on all and to convict all the ungodly of all their deeds of ungodliness that they have committed in such an ungodly way, and of all the harsh things that ungodly sinners have spoken against him.” 16 These are grumbler[s], malcontents, following their own sinful desires; they are loud-mouthed boasters, showing favoritism to gain advantage.

17 But you must remember, beloved, the predictions of the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ. 18 They said to you, “In the last time there will be scoffers, following their own ungodly passions.” 19 It is these who cause divisions, worldly people, devoid of the Spirit. 20 But you, beloved, building yourselves up in your most holy faith and praying in the Holy Spirit, 21 keep yourselves in the love of God, waiting for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ that leads to eternal life. 22 And have mercy on those who doubt; 23 save others by snatching them out of the fire; to others show mercy with fear, hating even the garment stained by the flesh.

Concluding Doxology—Statement of Praise:

24 Now to him who is able to keep you from stumbling and to present you blameless before the presence of his glory with great joy, 25 to the only God, our Savior, through Jesus Christ our Lord, be glory, majesty, dominion, and authority, before all time and now and forever. Amen.
